House Committee Criticizes Businessmen in Gov't

Charge Wilson, Pentagon Aides Violate Mandate

Report Claims
Businessmen No
Panacea for Problems

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—A House subcommittee report today severely criticized Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and other businessmen in government.

The report, approved by the majority of a government operations subcommittee, specifically charged that Wilson and his top Pentagon aides violated a congressional mandate that an integrated supply system be set up among the military services.

It also said that businessmen in government, like Wilson, Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas and Asst. Defense Secretary Thomas P. Pike, are not the "panacea" for problems of government administration. Accused of inconsistency.

Release of the report has been held up by the full committee because some Republican members said they have not had time to study it.

The document also accuses the Hoover Commission on Government Reorganization of "inconsistent" statements and of failing to "integrate the efforts of its own task forces."

The report stems from hearings held last May on Hoover commission charges of military waste, including the Navy's 60-year supply of hamburgers. The report said that Thomas apparently wouldn't have done anything to correct the hamburger situation if the subcommittee hadn't made a public issue out of it.

The subcommittee said that as a result of its public hearings, Wilson issued a directive last November aimed at setting up a unified food supply system. But, it said, the system didn't go far enough and wouldn't necessarily prevent an accumulation of another "mountainous supply of canned hamburgers."

Difference of Opinion

Prior to the hearings, the report said, Wilson had "torn down the beginnings of a structure of integration which had been built . . . at the insistence of the Congress."

"All this adds up to a serious indictment of Secretary Wilson for not taking the necessary action to carry out his statutory duties and responsibilities," the subcommittee said.

The subcommittee said Wilson and his aides at first defended themselves against the Hoover commission charges by stating that prominent businessmen had been brought into the government and were making substantial progress. But the Hoover commission was composed of leading businessmen, too, the subcommittee said.

"As the difference of opinion between the businessmen on the Hoover task force and those in the Department of Defense illustrates, there is no panacea for the particular and special problems of government administration to be derived from private business experience," the subcommittee said.

Transient Hiding in Church at Carrier Mills Causes Scare

Creates Fear
He Might Be
Escaped Killer

A transient hiding in the furnace room of the Social Brethren church on Route 45 at Carrier Mills yesterday evening gave fear that he might be Leslie Irvin, escaped "Chinese execution" murderer.

The man, however, gave his name to officers as Frank J. Toth, 29, and said his home was in Chicago. He is being held in the Saline county jail until he can be checked out satisfactorily.

Officers said that Toth broke up a young people's meeting at the church when he was spotted in the building. Fearing he might be the wanted Irvin, State Policeman Adolph Sweat of Carrier Mills was summoned. Sweat apprehended him in the furnace room and brought him to the Saline county jail.

Sweat said that there was considerable resemblance to the picture and publicized features of the hunted Irvin. He was wearing a blue striped suit, the same type Irvin was reported to wear, and was about the same age and size. However, Toth has straight hair and wears thick-lensed glasses, it was stated. Irvin, 31, reportedly has a wave in his hair.

Civic Clubs Hope For Good Crowd At Polio Game

With fiery challenges and counter-challenges being tossed about quite freely, the local civic clubs are preparing for a red-hot contest in tomorrow night's March of Dimes benefit basketball game at Davenport Gym.

Some of the statements issued by the various team coaches were nothing less than inflammatory. Kiwanis player-coach Ronnie Doerge: "Our youthful team will run the rest of them into the ground."

Rotary player-coach "Pusher" Lynch: "We're in better condition than both of us."

Boys player-coach Bob Stout: "Nothing can overcome age and experience, and we're loaded with it."

Lions player-coach "Stopper" Adams: "The superior court finesse, shooting skill, and all-around ball-handling ability of our big squad will turn the ball game into a farce, and I do mean farce."

All teams, however, were agreed on one point . . . it's for a good cause, and they all hope for a good turnout to swell contributions to the March of Dimes.

For basketball fans, there will be a main event featuring the strong independent Dairy Brand club, which numbers several former HTHS stars on its roster. Entertainment between contests will be provided by the HTHS band and the K-9s, fine HTHS dance orchestra.

The fun will begin at about 7:30. Serious basketball will take over about 20 minutes later.

Study Price Supports for Cattle, Hogs

Action Announced
After Meeting
At White House

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The White House and the Agriculture Department agreed today to explore the possibility of some form of immediate, emergency price supports for cattle and hogs.

The action was announced by the White House after a meeting with the Iowa congressional delegation.

The emergency steps will be studied in the next few days and a report made back to the White House. The congressional delegation said it does not believe that legislation will be needed.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said it was the consensus of the meeting that there is urgent need for "immediate action" in Congress on the Eisenhower farm program plus emergency steps that can be taken by the department without new legislation.

Some Type of Support
Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) said that among the immediate emergency steps discussed were "some types of support and production limitations."

He said the Iowa group thought that some form of price supports for beef and hogs could be put into effect immediately without new legislation under current laws providing for the support of non-storable perishables.

Cattle and hog producers have been caught between tumbling prices and rising costs.

Besides Hickenlooper, the Iowa delegation included Republican Sen. Thomas E. Martin and the state's eight congressmen, all Republicans. They held a lengthy meeting at the White House with Sherman Adams, the assistant to the President, Undersecretary of Agriculture True D. Morse and members of the White House staff.

They explored emergency operations to relieve depressed farm prices while Congress is considering President Eisenhower's nine-point farm program.

When told at the county jail that the people at the church thought he might be Leslie Irvin, Toth said he had never heard of the man.

No Basis To Rumors
Upon questioning, officers said, Toth admitted he had done time at Angola penitentiary in Louisiana for safe-cracking and at Perth Amboy, New Jersey, for breaking and entering. Officers today were making a check to determine if he is a fugitive at the present.

Sweat said his telephone rang incessantly last night and this morning, people inquiring if the man in the church was Leslie Irvin.

He said state police have not received any reports whatsoever that Irvin has been seen in Saline county. Sheriff William T. Barrett and Chief of Police Ross Lane also said they had not received any reports of Irvin being seen. There have been rumors floating around that he was seen in Harrisburg.

Reports From Five States
At Princeton, Ind., however, the FBI said most reports that the fugitive had been seen have come from Illinois and Missouri, but added that similar reports have been received from many cities in Indiana, Ohio and Kentucky.

Irvin slipped out of the Princeton jail Wednesday night. He was under sentence of death for one of six murders for which he has been indicted.

He earned the "Chinese execution" title because he forced his victims to kneel before he sent bullets through the back of their heads during holdups.

Funeral Services Held Today for Rev. J. Rue Reid

Funeral services for Rev. J. Rue Reid, 60, well known Methodist minister who died Friday at 3 p. m. at a Lawrenceville hospital, were held today at 1 p. m. at the Methodist church in Carrier Mills.

At 2:45 p. m. a short service was held at the Eddyville Methodist church. Rev. N. C. Henderson of Lawrenceville and Rev. Carl Davidson of Carrier Mills, officiated at both services. Burial was in the Eddyville cemetery.

In 1912 Rev. Reid was married to Nettie Bennett who preceded him in death in 1943. He then married Mae Reid, who survives him. He also leaves three children: two sons, Joice Reid, St. Louis, Mo., and Lowell Reid, Marion, and one daughter, Mrs. Henry (Vivian) Dunn, Mounds, Ill.; five grandchildren; one brother, Loren Reid, Springfield; a sister, Mrs. Charles Buck, Peoria, and two stepchildren.

Heckman took a 12-gauge shotgun and shot his wife, Jane, in the hallway of his home. Then he

Evangelist Billy Graham Gives Eye Witness Report of Rioting in Bombay

Editors Note: American evangelist Billy Graham was in Bombay when riots broke out there. The bloody demonstrations, in which nearly 80 persons were killed and an estimated 500 injured, forced cancellation of a public meeting Graham was to have addressed. Graham arrived in Madras, India, this weekend from Bombay. In the following eyewitness story written exclusively for the United Press, he tells what happened.

What caused it all?
A decision by the government to exclude Bombay from Maharashtra State.

Bombay is to go under the control of the central government. But why all the fuss?

There are two language groups who feel they should control Bombay. The government tried to compromise with both groups. Thus, the rebellion is not anti-Western or anti-American. It really is anti-government.

According to newspaper people, this provided a golden opportunity for Communists.

Apparently they were soon in charge of the rioting even bringing in hoodlums from other parts of India to help ignite mobs.

I went along with my friend Bob Pierce of Los Angeles to visit certain disturbed areas of the city.

We saw stone throwing and arrests being made by police.

We heard the crackle of rifle fire and saw one old man being beaten by a mob of boys in the market place because he would not close his shop.

People Are Friendly
Everywhere we went we saw people who had been scowling at each other return our smiles.

I asked one who could not have been more than 14 why he was throwing stones. He shrugged his shoulders and replied: "I don't know. I was told to."

Bombay normally is one of the most beautiful and peaceful cities in this world.

It is considered India's most modern city. People have been very friendly to us. We have been given a great reception everywhere. I found a very little anti-American feeling so far. The press of Bombay has been sympathetic and exceedingly generous in its coverage.

I'm convinced here in India we will see the greatest response to our evangelism that we have seen anywhere in the world.

India is hungry, searching, questioning, deciding!
Let's pray she decides for Christ.

Youth Killed by Train at Marion

MARION, Ill. (U.P.)—Kenneth Parks, 19, was killed Sunday night when a train hit his car on a crossing here.

Parks lived near Creal Springs. Police said a Chicago and Eastern Illinois freight train hit the car on a crossing on the south side of Marion. Parks, who was alone in the car, was killed instantly.

Besides trying to soften Democratic attacks on Dulles, Mr. Eisenhower was expected to make a determined pitch with the veteran Georgian for his foreign aid program. George has said he opposes any expansion of foreign economic aid and the administration's proposal to put the program on a long-term commitment basis.

George so far has kept out of the mounting Senate debate over Dulles' remarks. But he has approved generally of demands by some Democrats for a congressional review of foreign policy. George told the United Press he thinks such a review "can be most helpful" if criticism is "kept on a high plane" and personalities are eliminated so far as possible.

Although he has not commented directly on Dulles' statements, George has made it clear that he does not approve of diplomacy by "walking along a precipice."

Charles R. Lee, 83, whose home was at Rosiclare, died Sunday afternoon at the Good Shepherd Nursing home in Galatia. The body is in the Hoffman funeral home in Golconda and funeral plans are incomplete.

Violence Within Families Takes Lives of Four Children, Two Mothers

Two children in Indiana and two children in California died at the hands of their distraught parents Sunday.

An Indiana Sunday school teacher shot and killed his two young sons as they frolicked in the bathtub. He also killed his wife and then told officials he was the "Son of God."

In California, a former airline stewardess was found dead with the bodies of her two children in a car parked near a church. Police said she had spread deadly exhaust fumes into the car through a vacuum cleaner hose.

One tragedy took place in tiny Brooklyn, Ind., located 20 miles south of Indianapolis.

Robert Heckman, 31-year-old truck driver, was preparing to teach Sunday school at a local Methodist church. His children were in the bath, getting ready for church.

Heckman took a 12-gauge shotgun and shot his wife, Jane, in the hallway of his home. Then he

Engineer Frank Parrish, 61, of San Bernardino, Calif., said he "just blacked out."

Bankers Turn Over Funds for Toll Highways

CHICAGO (U.P.)—Bankers turned over a check for $407,391.666 to the Illinois Toll Highway Commission today to finance construction of 193 miles of northern Illinois turnpikes.

After almost three years of controversy, the commission finally completed the sale of 415 million dollars worth of bonds.

The transaction was completed in a five-minute ceremony at 8 a. m. in the shareholders' rooms high in the Continental Illinois Bank building.

John F. Fennelly, senior partner in Glenside, Forgan and Co., representing the underwriters of the bond issue, gave the check to Commission Chairman Evan Howell.

Fennelly said "it's been a long, hard row but we finally made it."

The bonds' face value totaled $415,000,000. The underwriters paid 98 per cent of par, or $406,700,000 plus interest since the contract was signed last October.

This brought the total amount due to $411,541,666. A down payment of $415,000 had been made earlier, leaving a net of $407,391,666. The underwriters' "spread" or profit, was $8,300,000.

The bond issue is described as the largest offering of "new money" to the American public in history, according to James Jamieson of Glenside, Forgan & Co., which was a co-manager of the underwriting syndicate.

Commission Engineer George L. Jackson said he would begin at once to hire a staff to launch work on the project, which will stretch over 193 miles along three northern Illinois routes.

One turnpike will swing around Chicago from the Indiana line to Wisconsin. A second will run from Chicago to Aurora, and the third from Chicago to South Beloit, near Rockford.

Engineer Says He 'Blacked Out' on Curve

Servicemen Hold
Down Panic, Help
Get Out Injured

LOS ANGELES (U.P.)—The engineer of a high-speed commuter train said today he "blacked out" just before the crowded two-car diesel pitched off a curve and overturned, killing an estimated 29 persons.

At least 142 were injured, some seriously, when the Santa Fe Railroad's San Diego train was derailed on a curve at Cedar, W. Va., early today. At least 25 passengers were injured, several seriously.

Engineer Frank Parrish, 61, of San Bernardino, Calif., said he "just blacked out."

"I remembered passing the 35-mile-per-hour clock signal in the yard and then I blacked out. I came to as the train was flipping on its side," he said.

A scene of terror followed as the surviving passengers tried to claw their way out windows that were high and small.

Servicemen aboard the train kept the panic from getting out of hand, survivors reported. The sailors, soldiers and marines called for quiet and with the discipline of a military operation they broke out flashlights, found windows they could open and began lifting out the injured.

Police, meanwhile, flashed an alert terming the accident a major disaster and calling for all available ambulances and doctors. A temporary morgue was set up in a vacant lot a short distance from the overturned train. The bodies, some torn to pieces, were taken to the field to be talked by Coroner E. A. Winstanley and his deputies.

The scene of carnage was unparalleled in Los Angeles history. The train had slid about 150 feet on its side before coming to a stop and was a mishap mass.

Arms and legs stuck out grotesquely from the wreckage. Trained coroners' aides used slings to pick up the remains and take them from sight of the rescuers.

First reports to police said 89 persons had been killed from 188 persons on the passenger manifest, a count based on the number of tickets sold for the run to San Diego.

The toll estimate was revised a few hours later by a coroner's estimate to 47 fatalities and then revised downward.

"It might be days before we can identify everyone killed," Coroner Winstanley said. "I am, ordering an inquest as soon as all the reports are in." He said the counting of dead was difficult because some of the bodies were so badly torn.

The railroad's statement that undue speed was responsible for the accident was confirmed by the reports of survivors who agreed they thought the train was going "too fast" a moment before it overturned.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation sent a detail of agents to the scene to check into the crash, presumably for federal agencies interested.

The Big Guessing Game

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT
For months everyone under the sun has been guessing about President Eisenhower's political future
on the basis of what his intimates and immediate staff are reported to have said. Now they can speculate on the basis of his own comment, which ought to represent a considerable advance.

Close examination of his remarks disclose that there is something in them both for those who think he will run and for those who think he won't. On balance, what Mr.
Eisenhower said appears to lend a bit more support to the latter group.

One of his more revealing utterances, for example, came in response to a question whether in the light of his heart attack he would give more weight than ever to the health factor in deciding whether to run.

The President said "yes" to this rather obvious query, but then gave newsmen an unexpected bonus of information.

He reminded them he must decide not simply on what the doctors tell other heart patients nor even what they tell him personally. He must consider that it is a critical thing to change governments in this country at times other than elections. In other words, at times when death or disability
of the White House occupant compels it.

This shows clearly how gravely
the President is weighing what would happen to the country should he run, be re-elected and then later suffer a second either crippling or fatal heart attack. And it is plain he does not relish placing the country in that position.

At another point the matter of duty comes up. Many Republicans have stressed that when the chips were down Mr. Eisenhower would "feel it his duty" to run again.
The President acknowledged that duty is a powerful force in his mind. But then he raised the question as to where his duty might lie, and who is to decide what it really is.

Certainly one way to interpret
this comment is that he might conceivably decide that in the light of all factors it was his duty NOT to run.

Further on, he said he agreed with Dr. Paul Dudley White that hard work never killed a healthy man. But then again he posed a reservation. Things happen to the human body which leave men less than fully healthy.

On the other side, the hopefuls can take most encouragement from the fact the President said his mind is not fixed on the subject of a second term. He did indicate it is leaning rather strongly in one direction, but not so far it can't be changed.

They can also find nourishment
in the statement that until now
he has not discussed a second term objectively and intensively
with his most trusted advisers.

So, you can still bet either way.
But those who want to bet "yes"
perhaps ought to hedge their wagers a shade more carefully than their adversaries.

New Altitude Record

The continued growth of this country's air traffic is a staggering phenomenon. In 1955 it shot up another 20 per cent over 1954, with some 42 million passengers carried on U. S. airlines.

The gain in domestic air travel alone was around 22 per cent, double 1954's advance. All these figures are for regularly scheduled lines. But totals given out by the CAA show marked expansion as well in air express and private flying, especially business travel.

Barring such an unforeseen development as a severe general business drop, it is almost a certainty that 1956 will put 1955 in the shadow. For the peak in air travel still seems a long way up.

Farmer John Faces Fancy Figuring on Soil Bank Plan

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)— The
average dirt or suitcase farmer
will find himself in weeds as high as an elephant's eye when he sits down with pencil and paper to figure out what he can get out of President Eisenhower's new soil bank. Take the case of an average Farmer John, owning and operating 160 acres, of which 120
have been under cultivation.

To make it simple, say that he had 60 acres in corn or other feed grains.
If in the north, say he had the other 60 acres in wheat. If in the south, say he had 20 acres in cotton and the remaining 40 in soybeans or peanuts.

Under the acreage allotments
now in effect, say that the 60 wheat acres were cut down to 50, or that the 20 cotton acres were cut down to 15. On top of this, pile the soil bank plan, in two parts.

Part one, the "reserve" plan, is aimed to reduce cash crop production while the huge government surpluses are being disposed of.
So it is proposed to reduce acreage under cultivation by an average of 20 per cent.

FARMER JOHN CAN'T BE ASK-ED to take a loss on this idle acreage. So the government proposes to pay him "a percentage of the value of the crop he would have raised." What this percentage will be isn't specified. But the general assumption is that it would be something more than the profit
he would normally make on this acreage.

Since he wouldn't have to buy seed or fertilizer or cultivate or harvest the crop, his costs of operation would be reduced and counted as a saving. The 50 acres of wheat cut 20 per cent would be reduced by 10 acres.

If this land had averaged 20 bushels to the acre, at $1.80 a bushel, its crop would be worth $360. If farmer is paid half this, he'll get $180. The 15 acres of cotton cut 20 per cent would be reduced by three acres. If this land averaged two thirds of a bale to the acre,
at $175 a bale, its crop would bring $350. If the farmer is paid half this, he'll get $175.

In addition for this, the farmer
would have to agree not to plant
this reserve acreage in any cash crop and not to raise livestock on
it. The land could lie idle, or it could be planted to cover crop,
such as grass, to hold the soil.

Payment would not be in cash,
however, but in Commodity Credit Corporation "certificates," issued at harvest time. They would be good for an equivalent amount of government-held surplus wheat (or cotton) at current market prices.
The farmer could sell the certificates back to CCC for cash. Or he could take the commodities, sell them on the open market, or hold them on his farm for a price rise.

THE WHEAT HE MIGHT FEED
to his chickens. Cotton isn't edible, but it might be used to plug up cracks. Assuming this is all clear, turn now to the second or "conservation reserve," part of this program.

This is applicable to all the rest of the land the farmer has under cultivation, regardless of crop. It would even be applicable in New England, where few of the basic crops are grown. Here the government would say to Farmer
John in effect:

"The government will make a three-year (or maybe longer) contract with you to take more land
out of production."

It must not be planted in other cash crops or grazed.

For the first year, President Eisenhower says the government will pay "a fair share of the costs of planting this land in trees or grass,
or building rainfall catch basins
to conserve the soil. Thereafter the government would pay the farmer annually to keep this land
in reserve.

THESE PAYMENTS AREN'T STATED PRECISELY. But President Eisenhower's total figures of 350 million dollars to take 25 million acres out of production the first year would average $14 an acre.

The exact amount will vary from region to region, based on past production. So if Farmer John put 25 acres more in conservation reserve, at an average $14 an acre, he could collect $350 the first year, possibly less in succeeding years. This, with the $175-$180
from the first part of the plan, would give him a total take of $525. This is an average. A separate calculation would have to be made for every one of America's six million farms choosing to take part in the soil bank plan.

Congressional Farm Bloc Insists Soil Bank Plan Be Financed from Treasury

WASHINGTON (AP)— The powerful congressional farm bloc raised a threat to President Eisenhower's delicately balanced budget today
by insisting that his one-billion-dollar-a-year "soil bank" program be financed entirely out of the Treasury.

Mr. Eisenhower has proposed that nearly half the cost of the crop-reduction program be covered by sales of government-owned surplus farm commodities.

That was one of the assumptions
on which the President forecast a "slim" federal surplus for the 1957
fiscal year beginning July 1. Mr.
Eisenhower warned in his budget message that any major increase in direct government spending would upset the prospects for a balanced budget.

Of course, if government revenues should prove to be larger than the administration forecast—as many lawmakers expect—that would offset an increase in spending and the government might still end up in the black ink.

Double Goal Sought
The soil bank, proposed as a means of reducing farm surpluses
and putting money in farmers'
pocketbooks at the same time,
would provide government payments to farmers who take crop-land out of production.

The administration asked Congress for authority to put a one billion dollar soil bank into operation. It would pay 600 million dollars of the cost directly from the Treasury in the next fiscal year and make up the rest by selling 400 million dollars' worth of government-owned crop surpluses on the domestic market.

This 400 million dollar "savings" happens to be the exact amount of the budget surplus anticipated by the President.

But the idea of using crop surpluses to help pay the cost has run into stiff bipartisan opposition.
Influential Democrats and Republicans on the Senate Agriculture Committee, after studying the plan, contend that the surplus sales would, or might, depress market prices.

In another development Iowa's two senators and eight congressmen, all Republicans, took their demands for stepped-up government meat buying directly to the White House, discussing the mat-

Practical Joke Backfires At Country Club

SHENANDOAH, Ia. (AP)— The Country Club, as a practical joke, announced that a clothes drier
would be presented as a door prize
at a dance.

The winner was duly selected and announced, and promptly presented with a clothes line.

However, the protests from patrons was such that a collection was taken and the winner received a real clothes drier.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Cain went out from the presence of the Lord. — Gen. 4:16.
Ancient people were of necessity taught by symbols. The story of Cain and his murder of his brother through jealousy was known to Sumerians, who preceded the Babylonians chronologically. One of their provinces was called Eden. Jealousy is still a deadly sin that drives us from the presence of God.

Temperature of Girl, 2, Drops to 60.8 Degrees After Attack in Cold House

MARSHALLTOWN, Iowa (U.P.)—Doctors had high hopes today for a 2-year-old girl who was criminally attacked and left in a freezing house where her temperature fell 38 degrees below normal.

Vickie Davis' 60.8 degree body temperature was believed to be the lowest ever recorded in a human who survived. Her temperature climbed from that reading into the fever brackets and then returned to normal.

Meanwhile, police posted a 24-hour guard over the bedside of the child's grandmother, Mrs. Fred Davis. The woman, whose body temperature fell to 74 degrees, has been in shock and has not been able to tell authorities what happened.

Mrs. Davis and the little Negro girl were found early Saturday in the grandmother's four-room house, shortly after the temperature had hit 24 degrees below zero.

Both were unconscious and the child had been criminally assaulted. The stove in the house had gone out, leaving them unprotected against the sub-zero cold.

The house had been ransacked and was spattered with blood. There was no sign of forcible entry into the house, however.

Police said early today that their main hope for catching the attacker lay with Mrs. Davis. The guard was maintained at her bedside in hopes that her memory would suddenly return.

Little Vickie showed a more dramatic recovery. She took nourishment and recognized her parents, who hurried to Marshalltown from their home in Milwaukee.

Doctors said Vickie was in "good condition." They believed they would not have to amputate any of her toes, even though they were frostbitten.

Vickie's case recalled that of Dorothy Mae Stevens, who was found unconscious in a Chicago alley in 1951 with a body temperature of 64 degrees.

Mrs. Stevens became the first person to survive so low a body temperature. However, an American Medical Assn. spokesman could not confirm today that Vickie's 60.8 temperature set a new record for survival.

Knowland, Wright Petitions Filed For Primary

SPRINGFIELD (U.P.)—Petitions today were filed to place the name of U. S. Sen. William F. Knowland of California in the Illinois Republican primary against President Eisenhower.

The Knowland petitions were filed by Mrs. Ruth Troyak, Chicago, a friend of Mrs. Marion Cleveland who had announced a week ago that Knowland's name would be submitted to GOP voters of Illinois.

Petitions also were filed by the two top "rebel" candidates of the Illinois primary, State Treasurer Warren E. Wright and Chicago treasurer Morris B. Sachs.

Republican Wright filed petitions for both secretary of state and governor.

Sachs' petitions were filed for the Democratic nomination for governor by his nephew, Ben Sachs of Chicago.

This was the final day for filing and petitions for former Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson were also expected.

Open New Service Station, Restaurant

The new Cities Service gasoline station and restaurant, constructed across U. S. Highway 45 from the Harrisburg Motel, opened for business today.

Layton Aldridge is the manager of the service station and Paul Massey is in charge of the cafe. He formerly operated John's Steak House, Eldorado. Mr. Aldridge, former deputy sheriff and mine formen, was employed by the Cymac Coal Co., before his present employment. Both are widely known in Saline county.

Since construction of approaches are still underway, a formal opening is planned to be held when they are complete.

Senate Probers Hit Conduct of Harold Stassen

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Senate investigators today accused Harold E. Stassen, President Eisenhower's assistant for disarmament, of "reprehensible" conduct.

The Senate Investigating subcommittee, in a report filed in the Senate today, said Stassen was "most uncooperative" and "attempted to hinder and impede" an inquiry last April.

The inquiry concerned a proposed contract between the Foreign Operations Administration, which Stassen then headed, and a Los Angeles firm to erect grain storage elevators in Pakistan.

The subcommittee said Stassen "exercised poor judgment and used bad practice" when he insisted on pressing ahead with the contract with a firm which, the report said, was the apparent high bidder.

But the subcommittee saved its strongest language for Stassen's suggestion that there might be some unethical activity between an official of the low-bidding firm and an FOA employee. The FOA itself reported seven months later it could find nothing to substantiate this.

"Mr. Stassen's irresponsible and unsubstantiated implications in open hearing... were reprehensible for a high government official," the report said.

Sen. George H. Bender (R-Ohio) refused to sign the report and in a dissenting statement called it "inaccurate and unfair."

At Minneapolis, Stassen said the subcommittee report was an "unjustified political attack." He said news accounts of the report "sound like a political speech."

Stassen said he had stopped the entire grain storage transaction before any contract was signed or a dollar of government money committed and before the Senate inquiry started.

Marine Veteran Begins 100-Mile Hike for Polio

MURPHYSBORO, Ill. (U.P.)—A Marine combat veteran set out in chilly weather today to hike 100 miles through southern Illinois for the March of Dimes.

Sgt. Philip Hobbs, 30, left Murphysboro at 8 a. m. on the first leg of his six-day march for donations to the polio fund. The temperature was a chilling 18 degrees above zero as the Murphysboro High School band gave Hobbs a musical send off.

Several American Legionnaires from Murphysboro hiked along with the Marine to Carbondale. They collected donations from motorists the small caravan met along Ill. 13 as Hobbs marched eastward under a full combat pack and rifle.

The Marine recruiting sergeant hasn't set any goal for the donations except to say "We want all the money we can get for the polio fund."

Hobbs is scheduled to hike 16 miles today, ending at Carterville about 4 p. m. Other American Legion members will accompany him from Carbondale to Carterville. He will hike from Carterville through Herrin to Marion Tuesday.

Hobbs will march through some 11 cities in four counties before he ends his trek in Carbondale Saturday.

Iowa Trounces Michigan, 78-67; Face Purdue, Upset Winner Over Ohio State

CHICAGO (AP) — Iowa faces one of the toughest assignments in defense of its 1955 Big Ten basketball title tonight when the Hawkeyes travel to Lafayette for a battle with Purdue.

The Hawkeyes appear to be rolling again despite a mediocre record of 6 wins and 5 defeats. Bucky O'Connor's boys moved into undisputed possession of second place Saturday night by trouncing Michigan, 78-67, at Ann Arbor.

The victory was Iowa's third straight in Big Ten play after a 65-64 loss to Michigan State in its conference debut.

U. S. Olympic Stars Lose First Test to Russia

CORTINA, Italy (AP) — America's Winter Olympic stars took a drubbing in their first showdown with Russia, but they have high hopes of bouncing back today with a good showing in bobsleds and a win over the Soviets in hockey.

The bobsled action, slated to get underway this morning is the first "real" competition of the 1956 Olympic games.

Actually, the games don't open until Thursday and the first bobsled heats are not scheduled until Friday. Today's runs down the swift, dangerous Olympic course were first planned as an elimination for the two-man bobsled teams of the two nations at Bolzano, about 45 miles from the Olympic site here.

But officials ruled instead Sunday night that today's runs will be to determine the five slowest teams. These will be forced to be the five last starters in the official competition—a bad spot since by then the run will be chewed up by sleds and slowed down.

The Soviets are not entered in the bobsled, and the Americans are looking forward to an exhibition game tonight between the hard-hitting hockey teams of the two nations at Bolzano, about 45 miles from the Olympic site here.

Kenneth (Tug) Wilson, president of the U. S. Olympic Committee, refused today to predict how the U. S. hockey team will fare in Olympic competition until the results of tonight's match are in. But he believes that Russian and Canada will be the chief competitors for the hockey crown.

Soviets Impress Americans
Wilson, and the other Americans, were tremendously impressed by the Soviet showing in the unofficial speed-skating Sunday.

In a 500 meters race, the Russian swept the first three places with Evgenji Grishin, Yuriy Sergeev, and Rafail Gratch. Grishin bettered the world record with a 40.2 second clocking and third-place Gratch tied the old mark of 40.8. Ken Henry of Chicago and Don McDermott of Englewood Cliffs, N. J., who finished one-two in this event in the 1952 Olympics, had to settle for fourth and fifth.

"Those speed skating performances yesterday all but made certain that we won't win a single gold medal in that event," said Wilson.

Bradley Athletic Director Resigns

PEORIA (AP) — Bradley university will not name an immediate successor to Athletic Director Art Bergstrom.

Bergstrom resigned Sunday to become assistant to the executive director of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn.

Bradley President Harold P. Wades said "it will probably take quite a while" before a new athletic director is named.

"We want time to think it over and we want to weigh all possibilities," he said.

Carrier Mills Wildcats Defeat Norris City by Decisive, 82-56

The Carrier Mills Wildcats, showing improvement with every game, overpowered a well-regarded Norris City team Saturday night, 82-56.

Norris City entered the game with a record of eight victories and four defeats. Two of the defeats had been by a single point, one was a two-point loss and another by some 15 or 16 points, so Saturday's loss was by far the most decisive of the year suffered by Norris City.

Carrier Mills, starting the season with a disappointing record of four losses in its first six games, started a winning streak back on Dec. 3 that has brought about a record of eight victories in the last nine starts and the team's record to date is 10 and 5.

After a comparatively slow first quarter, with CM scoring 13 and Norris City 9, the Wildcats got their point making machine in high gear. During the last three quarters the winners averaged 23 marks per period, getting 23 in the second, 22 in the third and 24 in the fourth.

Rollins Scores 40 Points
In the early stages of the game Norris City threw a tight defense around Rollins under the basket and it was effective. However, Rollins pulled out and potted four from outside the free throw lane in the first quarter.

The deciding factor was the outside shooting of Harold Pitts. For the game he had eight field goals and six free tosses for a total of 22. His outside hitting caused the Norris City defense to loosen up under the hoop, then Rollins moved back to his favorite under-the-basket position and began to score consistently. He had 40 for the night, running his varsity scoring total to 2,121.

Ten players were in action, seven scoring. Reid played a fine floor game and Vern Rollins was great on clearing the boards. It was a team effort.

Norris City's Johnson paced the visitors. In addition to playing a good all-round game he also connected with 20 points.

Norris City won the preliminary by the top heavy score of 70-34.

Salukis Swamp Indiana State Five, 83 to 55

CARBONDALE, Ill. — Hitting 41 per cent of their shots, the Southern Illinois Salukis swamped a highly-regarded Indiana State quintet, 83-55, here Saturday night. Southern's 6-6 center, Gus Doss of East St. Louis, gave signs of getting into shape again as he collected 28 points and grabbed 17 rebounds. Doss has been eligible only three weeks and has had trouble getting into top form, but Saturday he showed that he may be well on his way to a good season.

On defense, Doss held Indiana State's big gun, Sam Richardson, to only seven points. Going into the game, Richardson was averaging 19.2 points per game.

With Doss bottling up Richardson, Indiana State had to depend chiefly on a guard, Bob Clark, who scored 16 points.

Southern jumped into a 14-13 advantage and led, 21-9 after 10 minutes of play. After that, Indiana State was never in the game. SIU led, 40-27, at the half.

It was Southern's eighth win of the past 10 games and the sixth win of the past seven contests. SIU now has a 9-5 season mark.

Seymour Bryson, Quincy, who had experienced a letdown after some brilliant early-season playing, looked good again Saturday as he tallied 15 points and made 13 rebounds. Also hitting in double figures were SIU guards, Richard Blythe, Hammond, Ind., who had 11, and Joe Johnson, Mt. Vernon, who scored 10.

While Southern hit 41 per cent (32 of 78) from the field, the Sycamores sank only 20 of 70 shots—a 29 per cent average.

Southern now prepares for its toughest week of the season as it clashes with league-leading Western Illinois at Macomb Friday night and opposes Illinois Normal at Bloomington the next night. SIU then goes to Eastern Illinois for an important encounter Feb. 1. Eastern, Southern, and Western are all unbeaten in league play.

Play Tight Defensive Game First Half, Then Opponents Pull Away

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs bowled 58-40 to the Rams at Mt. Vernon Saturday night after playing a bang-up defensive game against the South Seven basketball leaders the first half.

The Bull Dogs, doing a fine rebounding game as well as putting up a good defense, led 10-7 at the quarter and trailed but 19-18 at the half. But in the third quarter big Don Williams, 6-4 Ram junior center, began getting loose for shots and Mt. Vernon started piling up a lead.

Mt. Vernon outscored Harrisburg 11-4 in the third quarter and 28-18 in the last period. Williams, the thorn in the side of the locals, wound up with 24 points for the evening. Next high scorer was Wayne Stone, 6-3 Bull Dog junior forward. Stone hit six field goals in 14 attempts. Don Williams' 10 field goals were made in 19 tries.

Bull Pups Lose, 72-41

For the game Harrisburg shot .340, not bad, but Mt. Vernon shot .350, better.

Bot teams wound up with 15 fouls. In spite of a good, tight defense, only three fouls were called on the Bull Dogs the first half.

Harrisburg played without regular starter Tony Beal. The husky senior reportedly missed the bus to Mt. Vernon.

In the preliminary game the Bull Pups dropped a contest, 72-41. Mt. Vernon led 15-10 at the quarter, 34-22 at the half and 59-36 at the end of the third period.

This week Harrisburg joins Carrier Mills, Galatia and Eldorado in the Saline county tournament, to be played Friday and Saturday evenings in Davenport gym.

Rupp Picks His Kentucky Five For NCAA Title

By JIMMY BRESLIN
NEA Staff Correspondent
LEXINGTON, Ky. — (NEA) — Kentucky's basketball squad practiced foul shooting.

Adolph Rupp watched coisely, but instead of talking about the team the Baron's talk was of San Francisco.

"We have a date to play them, you know," Coach Rupp twanged. "It's not on the schedule, somebody said."

"You just don't know where to look," he said. "Get your NCAA book and you'll see that the national championship game will be held March 22. That's when we have our date with them. We'll be there and so will they. And I know what to do with them right now."

Rupp, in other words, is claiming the national championship in January.

"Unless something drastic happens to us, we're going all the way," he said. "You hear that we lost two games—to Dayton and Temple. Did you hear that we didn't have Bob Burrow against Dayton? And that his ankle was so bad against Temple he was about half himself?"

"We have Burrow back now. Stay down here and I'll have my boys really turn it on for you against somebody."

"Georgia Tech beat us twice last year. Do you know what we did to 'em this year? Beat 'em, 104-51."

Burrow, a 6-6 pivot man, is the key to Kentucky's offense. Operating with Jerry Bird, 6-6, and Phil Grawemeyer, 6-8, he is the 30-point man who works so well out of Rupp's guard-around.

Burrow is one reason why Rupp looks to win the championship he has gone after since the National Collegiate Athletic Association suspended Kentucky in 1952-53 as an aftermath of the fix scandals. Rupp's next team went undefeated in 25 games, but its top three members were declared ineligible for the NCAA Tournament because of being in school too long, so Kentucky withdrew.

Last year, Adolph Rupp went into the post-season games without Grawemeyer, who was injured, and Bill Evans, top backcourt man, who was declared ineligible. Kentucky lost to Marquette.
